

SECTION THREE — FACT SHEETS

Chapter Fourteen – Wildlife

Wildlife

Wildlife

Keeping Wildlife Wild

Wildlife Research

Mammals

Beaver

Eastern Coyote

Harbor Seal

Raccoon

Red Fox

Red Squirrel

White-tailed Deer

Birds

Bald Eagles

Peregrine Falcons

Raptor Migration and Hawk Watch

Common Loon

Seabirds

Amphibians, Reptiles, Fish

Amphibians

Acadia's Common Reptiles

Acadia's Fishery

Chapter Fifteen – Plants

Plant Groups of Acadia National Park

Caring for Acadia's Native Plants

Acadia's Common Plants

Chapter Sixteen – Land Formations

Geographic Features

Geology

Chapter Seventeen – Intertidal Zone

- Life Between the Tides
- Suggestion for a Low Impact Visit to the Shore
- Intertidal Plants and Animals

Chapter Eighteen – Resource Management

- Protecting Park Resources
- Downeast and Downwind - Air Quality
- Water Quality
- Geographic Features
- Acadia's Outer Islands
- Visitor Use
- Curatorial Management
- Other Important Resource Management Responsibilities

Chapter Nineteen – Cultural History

- Park History
- Carriage Roads of Acadia National Park
- Acadia's Historic Trails
- Fire of 1947
- Portrait of Three 19th Century Families—The Carrolls, Hadlocks, and Gilleys